A Report on industrial visit at Periya Tea Factory, Mananthavady, Wayanad- 16th
February 2024

Industrial visit was carried out at Periya Tea Factory, Mananthavady, Wayanad on 16/02/2024 especially for Second year B Com students. The main objective behind the visit was to make students aware about how various activities related to production process, marketing and human resource management are carried out in company and also to provide practical knowledge. Totally 102 students with four faculties left for visit at 6 am and took about 3 hours to cover the distance. The company is located in Periya, Mananthavadi. First the manager gave formal introduction about the company. After introduction all students were divided into four groups and were headed by one supervisor of the company who helped to understand how the production is carried out and all the operations and regular activities in company. The students learned the production process, layout design and HR related practices implanted by the tea factory. Finally, the student's leader Ms. Aditi Dinesh and staff coordinator Mr. Dirash R S thanked management for permission and support they gave to make our visit a grand success. The team returned to the college at 10'o clock at night.
